

CRAFTERS RULES & REGULATIONS

- 1. Applications must be received by February 3rd along with 3 slides or 4x6 photographs of your work. If you have photos on file and have added something new, send photos of new items.
- 2. The Review Committee will consider all applications of handcrafted items only. Any buy and sell items are strictly prohibited. Only items listed on application are to be offered for sale (new items must receive written authorization).
- 3. Upon acceptance, a non-refundable booth fee is due (do not mail fee until you receive an acceptance letter). This fee will be deducted from the 10 % of sales (see #4) payable to GMF.
- 4. Ten percent of all sales including orders taken during the show will be paid to the GMF. Sales receipts must be written for all sales and orders. GMF will provide receipt books. Completed receipt books are to be turned in to the Craft Office each day.
- 5. The craft committee will assign booths, and every effort made to vary the type of craft by location to maximize sales.
- 6. Credit card service is available at the Craft Office for a fee of 5% per transaction (American Express, Discover, Master Card and Visa). The minimum charge purchase is $10.
- 7. All booths must be open and staffed during show hours.
- 8. GMF will provide twenty-four hour security, but is not responsible for lost, stolen or damaged items.
- 9. Nearby parking is provided for crafters. Vehicles are strictly prohibited in the craft area during hours of operation.
- 10. Overt solicitation and selling items outside your area is not permitted.
- 11. Exhibitor's attire must adhere to the overall family-oriented theme of the show. Exhibitors and helpers must exhibit professional behavior at all times while on site. The Georgia Mountain Fair reserves the right to determine what constitutes professional behavior and acceptable attire.
- 12. All booths are required to maintain a fire extinguisher at all times.
- 13. Booth alterations are not allowed without written authorization.
- 14. Violation of regulation may be adequate grounds for prompt closure of exhibit.
- 15. Exhibitors may not sublet or apportion space to anyone else.
