

www.GeorgiaMountainFairgrounds.com

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Celebrate Independence Day in Hiawassee, Georgia

Make beautiful Hiawassee, Georgia your travel destination this Independence Day weekend as The Georgia Mountain Fairgrounds proudly presents two fun-filled events.

Start your celebration out right on July 3, 2010 as Multi-Platinum recording artist, songwriter and two-time Grammy winner Ray Stevens takes the stage in the 2900 seat Anderson Music hall at the historic Georgia Mountain Fairgrounds. With over 25 million albums and over 4 million videos sold throughout his illustrious career, you are guaranteed a comical music performance of the year. Ticket Prices are $40 & $30 plus a $2 handling fee and go on sale May 21, 2010.

Continue celebrating our Independence on Sunday, July 4th, as the Georgia Mountain Fairgrounds presents it's one of a kind, Fireworks Extravaganza. Keep all eyes looking up at the Georgia Mountain Fairgrounds at 9:45 PM as fireworks fills the skies of this historic venue.

Two fantastic events, beautiful scenic views, boating, fishing, swimming, hiking trails, peaceful nature, waterfalls and mountains you will not find a better place to travel this Independence Day than Hiawassee, Georgia. The Georgia Mountain Fairgrounds is also home to 189 beautiful campsites for rent, both lakefront and non-lakefront, with easy access to our events which is sure to make your Independence Day weekend even more fun. The area is complete with of plenty of lodging for your convenience. For more information call (706) 896-4191 or visit us online at www.GeorgiaMountainFairgrounds.com.